Parenting for Prevention
with

Isabel Burk, The Health Network

Isabel Burk, Director of The Health Network, is a nationally known, award-winning expert on drug prevention, safety policies, and health education issues. Her professional achievements have been honored by the U.S. Department of Health and Human Services, Northeast Center for Safe and Drug-Free Schools, and the New York State Department of Health. Isabel has written two books and more than 100 articles and has appeared on 20/20, CBS This Morning, The View, Phil Donahue, Fox News, and others.

Research demonstrates that parents have a great impact on their children's attitudes and behaviors regarding alcohol and other drugs. What can parents actually do and say with their children? Learn what works, what doesn't work, and exchange ideas with other parents.
